Dear Mr Wang

Action required for rebate on your electricity bill

The Australian Government has partnered with the Australian states and territories to create the Energy Bill Relief Fund. The fund will deliver targeted and temporary relief on electricity bills to eligible Australian households.

If you are the primary or a named account holder in your household, you may be entitled to a rebate on your electricity bill through your retailer.

We need permission to share your details with your electricity retailer. They will check your eligibility.

What you need to do

The easiest way to give us your authority is to:

- sign in to my.gov.au and select your Centrelink online account
- from your Centrelink online account homepage, select MENU, followed by My details, then Personal and contact details and then Energy Bill Relief consent
- or call us on the number shown at the bottom of this letter.

You can do this online until 30 June 2024.
